BENNINGTON BRIEFS

News of the Town and Village Told Briefly for Busy Readers.

Miss Mary Tyrell is visiting at her home in North Adams.

Miss Leda Vanchon of Dorset is visiting Mrs. A. E. Houle.

W. C. Houran is building a new wagon shed at his home on Pleasant street.

W. J. Galpin of the local telephone company exchange, spent Sunday in Manchester.

Frank Adams of Uteia spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. J. Eddington of School street.

Mrs. Charles Jewett is moving into the house she recently purchased on Union street.

Mrs. George Robinson and daughters of Shaftsbury spent Saturday with friends in town.

Charles Townsend of Union street who has been critically ill with typhoid fever is able to be out again.

William Lowe of the Pollard & Lowe Auto company, took Robert Squire's automobile to New York Saturday.

Fred Morse who has been seriously ill is making some improvement although his condition is not as hopeful as his friends wish.

A man on East Main street states that he picked new leaves off a lilac bush yesterday. This, indeed, should be a good sign of an early spring.

At the recent annual election of the Bliss business college debating club, Frank McGurk of Bennington was elected vice president of the organization.

A special meeting of the local lodge of Elks will be held tomorrow evening. Business of importance will be transacted and all members should be present.

S. S. Pike of Waterbury, Conn., spent Sunday with his wife in town. Mr. Pike was for a long time proprietor of the old corner market and is well known here.

Miss Gertrude Hubbard of Rutland was in town over Sunday, called here by the illness of her little niece, Doris Holton. The child is slowly recovering from a severe attack of pneumonia.

Miss Ella G. Barney returned Saturday after spending three weeks in Springfield, Wilbraham and Milledale, Mass., the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mowery, Mr. and Mrs. William Sessions and her sister, Miss Florence Barney.

The second match game in the series for three for a silver cup between the business men's team of the local Y. M. C. A. and the business men's team from North Adams will be rolled Friday evening in the Y. M. C. A. alleys in town.

Miss Jennie Valentine will give an interesting talk on Alaska at the Y. M. C. A. parlors tomorrow afternoon at 3.30. It is for the benefit of the ladies auxiliary and as many as possible should avail themselves of the privilege of being present. Miss Valentine has several interesting curios that she brought from Alaska.

Two names were added today to the list of posted persons who are debarred from patronizing the saloons. There have been fewer names added to the list of late and between the present time and the first of the year the terms of posting for a large number now on the list will expire.

Leslie Allen of the 12th Infantry, U. S. A., who has been in charge of the recruiting station here, is to leave today for Fort Jay in New York harbor. Since being stationed here he has not enlisted a single recruit which shows that the young men of the village are employed at better wages and under more preferable conditions than those afforded by the regular army.

Argo Red Salmon is just the thing for unexpected company. There is nothing better to serve from the can. At all grocers.

BUTLER KILLED HIMSELF.

Paul G. Thebaud, Jr., Found Unconscious With Bullet Wound.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Nov. 11.—John Bjorlin, butler at the Hillair farm, the country home of Paul G. Thebaud, the New York commission merchant, killed himself after he had shot and dangerously wounded his employer's eldest son, Paul G. junior. The latter, who alone might explain the shooting, remains unconscious.

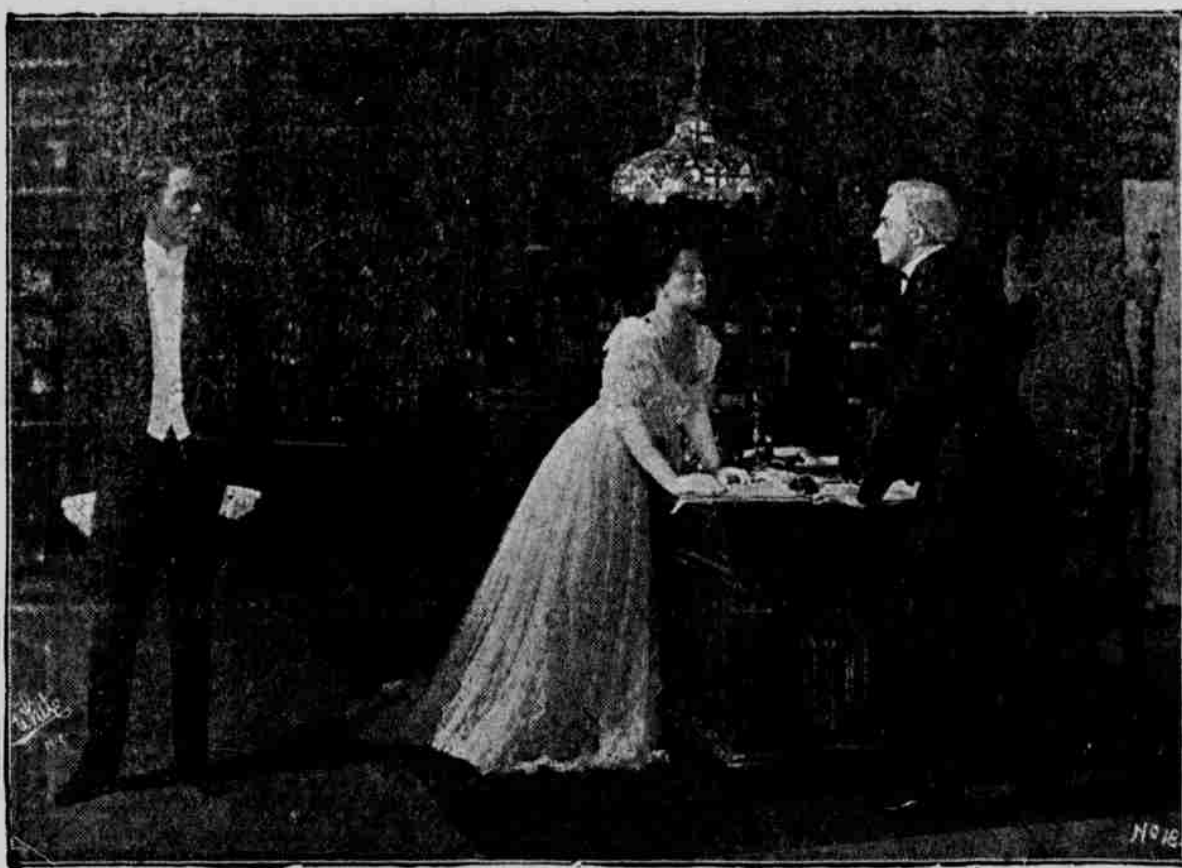

The family was aroused at daybreak by the report of a revolver twice discharged. Young Thebaud was found senseless in bed. A bullet had struck his skull and, though deflected, had fractured and depressed the bone. The butler, stretched upon the floor, was dead with a bullet in his brain. It is believed that Thebaud will recover.

It is suggested that the butler may have lost his head while hunting supposed burglars and killed himself in remorse when he discovered his mistake. He was thirty-five years of age and had been in the family for several years.

Fatal Duel Over Elections.

PERNALDA, Ky., Nov. 11.—As the result of a quarrel over an election bet William Hopkins, son of Rev. Thomas Hopkins, and Frank Foley fought a duel here. Hopkins was instantly killed and Foley is fatally wounded.
